ORDER

Plaintiff's Complaint indicates his intent to pursue this Fair Labor Standards Act case in the Court's Savannah Division. Doc. 1 at 1. Plaintiff resides in Screven County, Georgia, which is in the Court's Statesboro Division. See id. at 2; 18 U.S.C. § 90(c)(6). Apparently based on that connection, the Clerk assigned this case to the Statesboro Division. The Court's Local Rules require actions to proceed in the division where any defendant resides or where the acts or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred. See S.D. Ga. L. Civ. R. 2.1. Defendants admit that this Court has jurisdiction and that venue is proper. See doc. 10 at 2. They also indicate their belief that this case is proceeding in the Savannah Division. See id. at 1. Given the parties' apparent agreement that Savannah is the proper venue and only an irrelevant connection to the Statesboro Division, the Clerk is DIRECTED to transfer this case to the Savannah Division.

SO ORDERED, this 3rd day of <sup>December</sup> November, 2016.
